

Ana Helena Mandelli

Chemical Engineer with 20 years experience in Oil products logistic and Distribution. Worked in large companies such as Ipiranga Química and Shell. For over 15 years she has been working with aviation fuels in different areas as commercial and operational. In the last 4 years, she represents Plural associates looking for improvements to the Brazilian air sector, strengthening it and proposing changes aimed at increasing attractiveness to investors.